

The Magic of Paul Gertner

World Champion Magician

Paul Gertner has performed for more than 500 corporations in more than 25 different countries, has lectured at MIT, CMU, and TEDx conferences and has been featured on the front page of the Wall Street Journal...twice. A frequent guest on The Tonight Show Paul has also appeared on The Food Network – Dinner Impossible, NBC’s World’s Greatest Magic, HBO, That’s Incredible! And yes...even Mister Rogers Neighborhood. Paul was also invited as a featured performer at the Presidential Inauguration of President George W. Bush. In 1998 he wrote and starred in his first one-man theatrical production “Paul Gertner-Ten Fingers.” His latest theatrical effort the critically acclaimed show BRAINDROPS: Mind Reading, Magic & iPads is transforming the way companies think about and use Technology.

Recognized by his peers as one of the leading sleight-of-hand magicians in the world today Paul is also in demand as a teacher on the art of magic and illusion. Even David Copperfield has called upon Paul to consult on his TV specials. Paul’s best selling book Paul Gertner: Steel & Silver has become modern classic, inspiring magicians around the world with the secrets of his original magic creations.
