

Paul Gertner's Introduction

After-Dinner Programs:

Our guest performer this morning/evening is recognized as one of the leading sleight-of-hand magicians in the world today.

He has received The Magician of the Year Award twice from the Magic Castle in Hollywood, and has won every major magic competition including a Gold Metal & World Champion Title at the Olympics of Magic in Madrid Spain.

His magic has been seen on numerous television shows including multiple appearances on NBC's Tonight Show. Paul has also written and starred in two different critically acclaimed one-man theater shows Ten Fingers and Braindrops.

He travels the world with a his iPad and a deck of cards speaking to business audiences and he claims his best magic trick is...

...he's never had a...“Real Job”

Please welcome the magic of Paul Gertner!

OR

Is the hand faster than the eye? Our guest performer this evening knows the answer to that question. He developed an interest in the art of illusion at an early age and went on to become a world champion in sleight-of-hand magic. Paul has performed in 25 different countries, and has been seen everywhere from NBC's Tonight Show, to The White House, in The Wall Street Journal and even on Mister Rogers Neighborhood.

Please welcome The Magic of Paul Gertner.

Paul Gertner's Introduction

CIA Top Secrets Program:

(Please Read This Introduction)

“Our guest speaker this afternoon has spent the past 35 years traveling the world gathering information and intelligence and he is going to brief us today on some of what he has learned. However, I can't really tell you too much about him and the work he does because his bio looks like this... “

(HOLD UP the FAKE INTRODUCTION

(The Page with the Black lines through the text)

What I can tell you is that he has worked with more than 500 organizations and agencies in 25 countries around the world, and he is regarded as one of the leaders in his very specialized field. His innovative techniques are now taught and practiced by his peers around the world and they are considered to be some of the best work ever done. His work in the area of secrets has been featured in The Wall Street Journal, on NBC's The Tonight Show and even shared with The President of the United States. So please welcome our guest speaker this morning/afternoon/evening...

Mr. Paul Gertner.

Paul Gertner's Introduction

BRAINDROPS Program:

Our guest performer this morning/evening is recognized as one of the leading sleight-of-hand magicians in the world today.

A number of years ago he picked up an iPad and his brain exploded with new ideas. The show you are about to see combining magic with technology is the result.

Are we handing our Brains over to Technology?
You be the Judge.

Please welcome Paul Gertner's BRAINDROPS.